

The Top 8 Trends Keeping Manufacturers Up at Night (2020) fear global supply chain shortages or disruptions see suppliers' deliveries taking longer to arrive see insufficient production capacity negatively impacting operations are investing in improving their production facilities anticipate modernizing their facilities are actively combatting the skills gap are having to retrain existing workers don't have the data they need to make business decisions

Source: Priorities, Goals and Projections for Manufacturers, 2020, Thomas